Hamilton County Commissioners have a full agenda Monday morning, including reviewing and possibly approving a bid for a new ambulance, continued discussion with Hamilton Manor board members and possible action on a safety survey. The meeting begins at 8:30 a.m. in the commissioners room on the second floor of the courthouse. Meetings are open to the public. For a complete story on the meeting, see the March 13 issue of the News-Register.